October 5, 1793 introduced in France a 10 day week in defiance of the creator. In November 23, 1793 all churches were closed in Paris. All religion was abolished on November 10, 1793 and Bibles were burned in the streets. The Roman Catholic Church was overthrown in France.

In June 17, 1797 the French Assembly superseded the decree suppressing the Bible without a dissenting vote after the resolution had remained on the table for 6 months. Napoleon took the Pope prisoner on February 15, 1798 overthrowing the Papacy and inflicting a deadly wound. The world saw the papacy as finished.

The Bolshevik Revolution influenced by Karl Marx's Communist Manifesto and led by Lenin seized power during the October Revolution of 1917 and founded the Soviet Union. This was an atheistic power opposed to Capitalism and the Roman Catholic Church. The Papacy set about to bring down Communism.

The Revolutions of 1989, greatly altered the balance of power in the world and marked (together with the subsequent collapse of the Soviet Union) the end of the Cold War. Pope John Paul II and Ronald Reagan successfully collaborated together closely after their first meeting of June 7, 1982 to bring down the Soviet Union and the power of Communism.

Dan 11:40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.
